

U.S. COMMERCIAL SERVICE – Design & Construction Team

Doing Business in Haiti: Opportunities for U.S. Companies - Webinar

Accessing the Haitian Market - What U.S. Firms Need To Know For Success

Organized by the U.S. Commercial Service's Design & Construction Team, this webinar will feature U.S. Government and private sector speakers who will present practical, business-focused information on how to access business opportunities arising from current developments.

Webinar Details:

Date: February 15, 2012

Start Time: 1:00 - 2:15 PM Eastern Standard Time

Q&A at the end of the webinar

Cost: $35 Payable with Credit Card

Learn more and Register at:

<http://export.gov/industry/architecture/index.asp>

Program:

Highlights/Overview of the Caribbean Market – Robert Jones, Counselor for Commercial Affairs

Market Insights/Business Opportunities in Haiti – Ajani Husbands, Commercial Officer

USAID Forward Initiative – Jack Adrien, USAID

On the Ground Realities – Philippe St. Cyr, Director, American Chamber of Commerce in Haiti

Haiti Overview/Proposed Reforms – John Robinson, Econ Chief

Over the course of 2011, Haiti emerged as a country that held real economic potential in diverse areas. Opportunities for U.S. businesses include:

- Construction and Construction Materials
- Developing Tourism and Allied Sectors
- Modernizing Haiti's Infrastructure
- Developing and Expanding Agro-Business

Register Here for this Webinar today!

This Webinar Series is open to U.S. companies from a cross section of industries with growing potential in Haiti, including, but not limited to, best prospects such as energy (electric power generation, biodiesel), telecommunications and information technology, medical equipment, plastics and paper, raw and processed agricultural products, and light manufacturing.

U.S. Commercial Service — connecting you to global markets.

